CLERK'S OFFICE
MIDDLE DISTRICT COURT MIDDLE DISTRICT OF ALA

v.
Southern Health
Partners Services et.al.
Respondents

Civil Action
2:06-CV-748 MEF

Motion for Leave to Amend and to name
Additional Respondent

Comes now your Petitioner and would move the Honorable District Court to allow him leave to Amend his original petition by adding the name of the Autauga County Commissioner to his original claim and he would support his request
as follows:

1.) Petitioner had named a defendant of "Autauga County Commissioner" within his earlier motion to Amend filed with the Court filed on or around September 25, 2006, however, because Petitioner could not name the identity of such person the Honorable Court denied the general naming of "Autauga County Commissioner".

2.) Your Petitioner had used diligence in his efforts to ascertain the name of the person that would hold such office, however, he was unsuccessful in obtaining the identity to the person holding such office. Petitioner finally asked his Aunt to telephone the Autauga County Court house in order to find out who that person was and on October 31, 2006 Petitioner received the attached note from his Aunt naming such official as being a Mr. Clyde Chambliss.

3.) Petitioner would now submit the name of Mr. Clyde Chambliss as being the Chairman of the Autauga County Commission and request - ing that the Honorable Court grant him leave to amend his original claim by the addition of the chairman of Autauga County Commission, Mr. Clyde Chambliss, as a Respondent to his claim of inadequate medical treatment.

Wherefore These Premises Considered, Petitioner would request that he be granted leave to amend his original claim by the addition of the named party herein and that he be given this relief and all other relief the Court deems available to him.

For This We Forever Pray.

Done this the 6TH day of November, 2006.

Respectfully Submitted,
James Q. Huffman
